COMMUNICATED. I see that the project of a new Railroad is apper counties from Alexandria to Frederjeksburg and Richmond. As the people engaged in, and favorable to, this enterprise, will make the road, if they have money enough, and no mere local opposition from Alexandris can prevent their action, but will only tend to basten it, I hope that we shall not bare another Railroad excitement here, placing us in the attitude ascribed to us, unjustly, of being selfish. It would be better quietly to wait and watch the movements, before doing soything. In the present condition of things, anymore, and especially of Railroad affairs, it is not litely that such a sobeme, as the one spoken most restricted scale. Bullion was flowing into the Bank of England, and the returns of the week showed an increase. The closing figure for consols on Friday evening was 96%, same as advised by the Fulton. Havre cotton market was active and price very firm, with an opward tendency. Sales one day reached 4,200 bales at 103f. for Orleans Bas. The stock on hand showed a decrease of 6,000 bales compared with the same period last year.

The anticipated reduction in the rate of interest by the Bank of France had not been made, and the figure still remained at 34 p cent. The supply of money in the discount market was ample. The funds on the Bourse were rather higher.

The weather all over France was highly favorable for the growing crops. Freights at Havre were advancing.

WARRENTON CAMP MEETING .- The Campmeeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, began on Friday last, in a very hand-. me grove, located about four miles north of Warrenton, Va.; and it is said to have been the largest ever held in that section. The tents numbered near a hundred, and on Sunday there were several thousands of persons in the congregation. The grove was well adapted to the purposes of a camp meeting. Near the ground is a large stone church which could have been used if the weather had been unfavorable to the services in the grove. Notwithstanding the immense crowd, excellent order was preserved throughout the time, and the entire body of people seemed determined to prevent any unpleasant occurrences. On Sanday, between fifteen and twenty ministers attended the meeting .-The sermon in the morning was delivered by Rev. Win. A. Smith, D. D. President of Randolph Macon College--an elequent and logical discourse upon the subject of faith .--In the afternoon, Rev. Mr. Carson addressed the congregation, and Rev. Mr. Cowles at night. In addition to the reverend gentlemen named, we noticed upon the ground Rov. Mesers, Bennett, Granberry, Warc. Nash and Judkins, and others whose names we did not learn. The indications were greatly in favor of a very interesting and prefitable continuance of the meeting .-- Wash.

Star. GEORGETOWN IMPROVEMENTS .- The spirit of improvement is wonderfully stirring up our Georgetown neighbors. Here and there all over the town the effects of this revival are apparent, and now we have turcher to report that in a few days that steep hill from the DORTLAND SUGAR AND SYRUP .uppermost beights of the town, on the Rockville road, and justly called High street, down to Lee's hill reservoir, will be graded and stoned, the curbstones set, and gutters graded. This will be a great improvement undoubtedly, though it may in a spot or two throw private property considerably below the road level .- Nat. Int.
